

Baltimore, July 26.—The story published in a special despatch from this city to the London Standard, of the arrest at Landeck of Count D'Zembeck, his mother and a chambermaid, on a charge of complicity in a conspiracy to assassinate a German crown Prince, is untrue. It was fabricated by the Clerk of Court at Landeck, who has been arrested. There is no such person as Count D'Zembeck.

LONDON, July 23.—Fifty mills closed in Ashton. Eight thousand operatives ousted. Thirty-one mills closed at Dundee and twelve thousand persons out of employment. Both employers and operatives have held meetings and resolved not to yield.

St. Louis, July 26.—The cutting down of passengers' fare by the St. Louis and South-eastern Railroad, between here and Nashville, Tennessee, a few weeks ago, in opposition to the Iron Mountain road and its Southern connections, has been extended, and the former road announces that they will hereafter carry passengers from Nashville to Louisville at one-third fare, and freight at corresponding low rates. The route will be by St. Louis, South-eastern to Norfolk, thence by the Louisville and Paducah (Louisville). The opposition was about by the Louisville and Nashville Road refusing the St. Louis South-eastern Road tickets to Montgomery, Ala., and other points South.

WHEELING, W. Va., July 25.—Sweeney McGinnis, glass manufacturers failed; liabilities $150,000. They employ 300 men.

MONTGOMERY, July 29.—The drought ravaging corn and cotton. In some places we have had no rain since May. The crops are utter failures in the water part of the cotton belt. No rain fallen in from four to six weeks. It is estimated that the crop has been cut from 25 to 33 per cent. from the relations made three weeks ago.

A judicial decision interesting to the Jews of the Jewish faith was made in New York the other day. One Israel Aaron, a member of a Jewish synagogue, applied for an injunction to restrain the trustees of that corporation from making certain alterations in the synagogue, which Mr. Solomon holds to be a violation of the established spiritual law, and an interference with his inalienable rights as a pew-holder. The trustees refused to make the alterations, and the case came on for trial. The court, after a long session, decided in favor of the synagogue, holding that the trustees had the right to make such alterations as they saw fit. The court also held that the synagogue was a corporation, and that the trustees were its legal representatives.

A lady in Halifax having occasion to enter a milliner's shop, had her attention attracted by a beautiful and very expensive French bonnet, and inquired the price; she was told it was sold. "Oh, I had no idea of buying such an expensive bonnet," said the lady; upon which the milliner said, "It is a joint stock bonnet—that is, it belongs to three factory girls, who wear it by turns on Sunday."

Like her old sisters, Colorado has adopted a distinctive title and asks to be considered "the Centennial State." While thirteen States originally made the Union, Colorado desires to lead the ranks of additions that the second century will contribute.

A Columbia professor, reproving a youth for the exercise of his fists, said: "We fight with our heads here." The youth considered, and replied that butting wasn't considered fair at his last school.

The newspapers state that a well-known banker in Paris has absconded, leaving a large deficit behind. Mrs. Martington thinks it was very good of the poor man to leave it, when he might have got off clear with everything.

The Effort, a small yacht of less than sixteen tons, recently crossed the Atlantic from Fleetwood, England, to St. John, N. B., with a crew of two men and two boys, and is believed to be the smallest craft that ever made that voyage. The voyage lasted forty-nine days and was remarkable for squally weather.

Birghs are common—too common. When a family man goes home at night now, he has to hide behind the gate post and bawl out, "It's I, my dearest," at the top of his voice in order to keep from being shot. Some of them are already getting hoarse.

Thirty cotton mills were closed at Oldham, to-day; the operatives having refused to accept the master's terms in regard to wages.

The coffee planters of Ceylon are threatened with ruin, the rats having seized the plantations, grass-lands and style, and are trying to import African monkeys to get rid of them.

No Norwegian girl is allowed to have a beau until she can take a knit stocking; and, as a consequence, every girl can take and knit stockings as she can read or write.

On Monday last, about daylight, a steamer saw-mill of Messrs. Schmitt & Hund, of Greenville county, was destroyed by fire. The mill is located about five miles from the city, near the White Horse Road.

An alarming state of things prevails at Oldham, England. Only about six out of one hundred and sixty-two mills belonging to the Employers' Association are working.

A train of twenty-two cars on the Northern Pacific Road went through the bridge, over the Mississippi, at Rainard yesterday, killing five persons. The bridge is eighty feet high.

The number of deaths in Charleston for the week ending July 24, was 80, of which 36 were whites and 44 were colored.

A young son of Capt. W. McDwight, of Fairfield, fell down a flight of steps, and was so seriously injured that he died a few hours afterwards.

"We all have our crosses," sighed Cardinal McClosky, as he mournfully pinned on that $20,000 diamond, one the St. Vincent papals thrust upon him.

Nothing is more lady-like than the use of fine note paper and a neat fashionable envelope. So think the fortunate receivers of such billet-doux. The sweetness of a charming sentence is rendered more delicious, if conveyed on a delicate tinted sheet of Pirie's Note Paper. It is bad taste in a gentleman writing to a lady on inferior stationery. If you wish to be posted on the latest novelities, the fashion in these matters, enclose a stamp to Walker, Evans & Cogswell, for one of their little fashion books "Card Etiquette," or send an order for a recherche lot of paper and envelopes of the latest style. Do not forget at the same time to order a monogram.

State South Carolina—Richland Co. IN THE COURT OF PROBATE

By B. L. Bacon, Judge of Probate in said County.

WHEREAS Mary M. Carrington hath applied to me for letters of administration on the estate of CHARLES V. CARRINGTON, late of Richland County, deceased: These are, therefore, to cite and admonish all and singular the kindred and creditors of the said deceased, to be and appear before me, at a Court of Probate, for the said County, to be holden at Columbia, on the 6th day of August, 1875, at 10 o'clock A. M., to show cause, if any, why the said administration should not be granted.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Court, this 22d day of July, A. D. 1875, and in the 100th year of American Independence.

I. BOONE, Judge of Probate. July 4/75

Auction Sales.

Real Estate. By H. & S. BEARD, Auct'rs. The Columbia Building and Loan Association, of Columbia, S. C., against E. W. Wheeler.

BY virtue of power to me given as President of the Columbia Building and Loan Association, of Columbia, S. C., by the above-named E. W. Wheeler, of the city of Columbia, S. C., by his deed, signed, sealed and delivered, to sell the property hereinafter described, and for him, and in his name, to execute and deliver proper titles to the purchaser or purchasers of said property, I hereby give notice that on MONDAY, the 2d day of August next, I will sell, at public auction, in the city of Columbia, S. C., before the Court House, to the highest bidder, for cash,

All that TRACT OF LAND, lying within the city of Columbia, S. C., containing twenty-five (25) acres, more or less; bounded North by the land now or formerly of Mrs. Tines, lots of E. W. Wheeler and D. B. DeSaussure; East by Laurens street; South by Lower Boundary street, and West by tract lately of Mrs. McCord; twenty-one acres; being a portion of the land conveyed to E. W. Wheeler by John B. Yates, September 27th, 1869, and four acres being the lots conveyed to E. W. Wheeler by P. F. Frazee, Sheriff, January 3, 1870.

July 8 GEO. L. DIAL, President. The above property was transferred to R. H. Cain February 18, 1873, subject to agree mortgage.

SEIBELS & EZELL, REAL ESTATE AUCTIONEERS.

IMPORTANT sale of VALUABLE LOTS in the flourishing town of SENECA CITY, at the crossing of the Air Line and Blue Ridge Railroads, beginning on WEDNESDAY, 11th day of August, 12 o'clock, and continuing from day to day until the entire property is disposed of. This will afford an opportunity for purchasers to buy the unsold Lots, many of which are very desirable, in this healthy and fast improving town.

Seneca City possesses peculiar advantages in being located in one of the most healthy sections of the world, with a full supply of Pure Free Stone Water. Located within the Cotton Belt, it must command a good trade in that staple, as well as the rich harvests gathered in the valleys of the Seneca and Tugalo Rivers. Conners, Cane and Martin Creeks and Little River afford numerous and extensive Water Powers, within a few miles of the city, which, taken in connection with the fact that extensive Beds of Fine Iron Ore and Rich Gold Mines are found nearby, insures the success of the place, and, before many years shall lapse, it will undoubtedly be the largest city in the Western section of South Carolina.

Parties in want of a Pleasant Home, will do well to attend the sale, which will be without reserve, on the following terms:

One-third cash; balance in two equal payments of four and eight months. Purchasers to pay for papers.

Arrangements will be made with the Railroads to take parties attending the sale at reduced rates of fare. July 15/75
